

List of Title I Schools in Need of Improvement
No Child Left Behind – Adequate Yearly Progress

The Utah State Office of Education has identified the list of Title I schools identified as in need of improvement under No Child Left Behind accountability requirements based on adequate yearly progress (AYP) determinations. Title I schools are identified as in need of improvement when they have not achieved AYP for two consecutive years in the same subject area(s) (Reading/Language Arts or Mathematics). Those schools are no longer identified as in need of improvement when they achieve AYP for two consecutive years in the same subject area(s) for which they were identified.
